NEW TROUBLES IN COMPROMISE FOR TAX BILL

Treasury Estimates Plan Now Offered Would Hit More Individuals

DELAY CONTROVERSY

Ickes Offers Solution to PWA Problem

Washington, May 18.—(P)—The treasury estimated today that the latest compromise tax plan of the senate finance committee would produce $642,000,000 of which $172,000,000 would come from individual income tax payers.

Indicative, however, of the fact that the committee still is groping for an agreement on how to rewrite the tax bill as it passed the house, were requests for additional estimates on other ways of raising the $623,000,000 of permanent revenue sought by the president.

Chairman Harrison (D-Miss.) named three subcommittees, to report Wednesday morning on the "windfall" tax feature of the measure, on a provision for refunds on flood stocks on hand at the time of invalidation of the AAA, and on "the question of insurance that might be applied to pay the government's taxes."

The committee planned no further sessions until Wednesday. In the face of the delay in reaching an agreement on the tax controversy, word was passed in responsible capital hill sources today that President Roosevelt considered tax legislation essential and believed congress should stay in session until a bill goes on the statute books.

SOLUTION OFFERED FOR PWA PROBLEM

Secretary Ickes told a senate appropriations subcommittee today that "a way out" of the Public Works Administration's financial position might be found in the expansion of the $250,000,000 WPA revolving fund and the relaxation of statutes governing its operation.

The PWA administrator, whose organization is scheduled for curtailment under the $2,364,339,712 relief deficiency bill before the subcommittee, testified behind closed doors.

Downtown, as he spoke, the district of Columbia Court of Appeals held that the 1935 relief appropriation act, transgressed the constitution. The pending bill with its $1,425,000,000 relief fund is modeled along similar lines.

Senator Hayden (D-Ariz.) told reporters after Ickes testified that the secretary had "indicated" that his needs is securing funds with (Continued on Page Six)

Wind, Hail and Rain Lash Nebraska-Iowa

Loss in Crops, Livestock and Property Heavy as Storm Cuts Trail of Havoc.

Omaha, Neb., May 18.—(P)—Extensive crop and property damage was surveyed today in the wake of a violent storm which injured eight persons as it swept across the Omaha-Council Bluffs, Ia., area.

A northwest wind spread most of the destruction late yesterday. It ranged from 62 miles to 70 miles per hour at the Government Airways Weather bureau with a 30-second gust registering 86.

Rain, lasting about an hour, totalled 2.66 inches. Hail, which drifted as much as four feet deep against some walls and banks, caused widespread damage to the fruit crop. Some livestock was reported drowned in creek floods.

Theodore Matson, Council Bluffs, was knocked unconscious by a big hailstone.

A police boat rescued almost 100 children marooned in the lobby of a suburban Omaha theater. Scores of persons were taken from water-bound automobiles in boats.

WEEKEND COLD WAVE DAMAGES FRUIT.

Albany, N. Y., May 18.—(P)—New York state's farm experts gathered field reports today showing that serious damage was done to fruit and vegetable crops by the unseasonal weekend cold wave.

Vineyardists in the Finger Lakes grape belt told W. L. Webster, county extension agent, that the cold has materially reduced the grape crop.

Temperatures ranging as low as 20 degrees above zero in some sections followed nearly two weeks of warm weather which speeded growth of fruit trees and vegetable plants and left them particularly susceptible to cold.

Six Lepers Go Berserk And Kill 7 in Escape

Bloody Trail Left in Flight From Island Colony Before They Head For Open Sea in Small Boat.

Manila, May 18.—(P)—Six Moro lepers fled after the constabulary today after killing seven men in a bloody dash from the Culion island leprosarium.

The armed lepers, under the leadership of one who called himself "Abdullah," killed four fishermen.

The committee planned no further sessions until Wednesday.

In the face of the delay in reaching an agreement on the tax controversy, word was passed in responsible capital hill sources today that President Roosevelt considered tax legislation essential and believed congress should stay in session until a bill goes on the statute books.

COAL CONTROL ACT IS HELD TO BE ILLEGAL

Decision Does Not Touch on Constitutionality Directly, However

NRA RULING CITED Kentucky District Court Opinion Reversed

New York, May 18.—(P)—

The stock market swung into a sharp advance today following announcement that the Supreme court had declared portions of the Guffey Coal Act unconstitutional. In the buying rush many early declines were cancelled and replaced with gains of $1 to around $4 a share.

By JAMES W. DOETHAT

Washington, May 18.—(P)—The New Deal lost today in the supreme court in its contention that the Guffey Soft Coal Act was unconstitutional.

In a trenchant decision, the court said the conclusion was unavoidable "the price fixing provisions of the (bituminous) code are so related to and dependent upon the labor provisions as conditions, considerations or compensations, as to make it clearly probable that the former being held bad, the latter would not have been passed."

"The fall of the former (before the court), therefore, carries down with it the latter."

"The price fixing provisions of the code are thus disposed of without coming to the question of their constitutionality; but neither this disposition of the matter, nor anything we have said, is to be taken as indicating that the court is of opinion that these provisions, if separately enacted, could be sustained."

The six to three decision was delivered by Justice Sutherland before a crowded audience which included Senator Guffey (D-Pa.), Co-author of the law with Representative Snyder (D-Pa.).

Justices Cardozo, Brandeis and Stone dissented.

U. S. SENATOR SUED FOR $25,000 BLM

$25,000 ASKED ON CHARGE OF ALIENATION OF HUSBAND'S AFFECTIONS.

Mt. Vernon, O., May 18.—(P)—A $25,000 alienation of affections suit, brought by Mrs. Margie Heaton Dill against former U. S. Senator Clarence C. Dill of Spokane, Wash., and Washington, D. C., got under way before Common Pleas Judge Philip L. Wilkins today.

Named as co-defendant in the suit was Mrs. Grace Dill of nearby Fredericktown, mother-in-law of the plaintiff and sister-in-law of the former senator.

The plaintiff charged in her petition that the defendants attempted to break her family ties with Wendell Dill, whom she married in May, 1934, the day after they were graduated from Fredericktown high school. She charged that the defendants arranged to have an illegal operation performed on her in Washington, D. C.

The former senator denied the charge in answer to the suit. The mother-in-law, also denying the charge, said in her answer that she did not believe her son's wife underwent such an operation.

The former senator also said in his answer that the suit was "an attempt to extort money" from him. Wendell Dill has been working in Washington where the former senator is in business.

Freed in Smith Case

Catherine Pavlick

Miss Catherine Pavlick, 25-year-old blonde of Astoria, L. I., was freed of complicity in extortion charges filed by Alfred E. Smith, Jr., in New York when she turned state's witness and testified before the grand jury. Two men, Max D. Krone, a private detective, and A. Henry Ross, Brooklyn lawyer, were indicted by the grand jury on the extortion charges brought by Smith, eldest son of the former governor.

ZEPPELIN IN STORM OVER THE ATLANTIC

GIANT DIRIGIBLE, RETURNING TO U. S., COMES THROUGH EASILY, HOWEVER.

New York, May 18.—(P)—The Zeppelin Hindenburg, weathering a heavy rainstorm steadily, sped far out over the North Atlantic today on its second flight from Germany to the United States.

The Hindenburg left Frankfurt at 11:35 p. m., E. S. T., Saturday after the departure was delayed by adverse winds.

After crossing the Netherlands and England, the Zeppelin encountered a heavy mist over the English channel, together with slightly adverse winds, and took a route south of the Great Northern Circle and steamship course, toward the Azores.

Struck by a heavy rainstorm from the northeast late yesterday, the great lighter-than-air craft caught about two tons of water. Although the wind roared at a 45-mile-an-hour pace, dispatches from the Zeppelin said it came through the storm easily.

EX-MOVIE ACTRESS SUES FOR $750,000

MARY MILES MINTER SEEKS RECOVERY FROM BROKER

Los Angeles, May 18.—(P)—Mary Miles Minter, the golden-haired screen star of 15 years ago, was cast in the courtroom role of a plaintiff today in a $750,000 suit.

The slender ex-star—she dieted away 50 pounds in recent months—is suing Blyth & Co., stock brokers, and their predecessors. She charges that Leslie B. Henry, now serving a prison sentence for defalcations of bonds and other securities of Miss Minter and her relatives, acted as agent for the firm of Blyth Wittmer & Co., with which he was connected at the time.

Miss Minter has figured in several court actions here since the days of her screen prominence, during which she is reported to have earned $1,000,000. In 1925 she filed a suit for an accounting for large sums she said she had given her mother and sister.

PARDON FOR DENNER ASKED OF GOVERNOR BY CONVICT'S WIFE

PETITION FOR RELEASE IS SIGNED BY 500 WHO SAY HE "MADE GOOD"

Columbus, O., May 16.—(P)—Mrs. Hattie Denner of De Kalb, Ill., asked Gov. Martin L. Davey today to pardon her husband, John Denner, whose six years of freedom as an escaped convict from Ohio penitentiary ended in Illinois a month ago.

She submitted a petition signed by 500 residents in the vicinity of De Kalb, who urged that the pardon be granted on the ground Denner "made good" following his escape from the prison brick plant in 1930. He was serving a life term for slaying his brother-in-law.

Charles Leasure, executive secretary of the governor in charge of pardons and paroles, said he would investigate the case.

Mrs. Denner told Leasure she had no knowledge when she married Denner that he was an escaped convict. She said he had lived a good life.

Denner was arrested on his farm near De Kalb after a county sheriff recognized his picture in a detective magazine.

He saw his wife briefly at the penitentiary today for the first time since he was returned here from Illinois.

John Denner was sentenced to life imprisonment in 1914 for the murder of John "Hoggy" Bainter, his brother-in-law, whose body was found in a shallow grave in a barn on the Dore farm about 3 miles east of Washington C. H. on the CCC.

Americans In Mexico Head For United States

FEAR BEING STRANDED AS RAILWAY WORKERS PREPARE TO STRIKE

Mexico, City, May 18.—(P)—Hundreds of American tourists, fearful of being stranded, crowded north-bound trains today as 48,000 employees of the Great Mexican National Railways made ready to strike for wage increases.

The general exodus of visitors from the North, making necessary extra cars on all out-going trains, started over the week-end despite a general belief the projected strike would be officially adjudged "illegal" and workers given 24 hours to return to their jobs.

Trade Agreement Signed

Washington, May 17.—(P)—The United States and Finland today signed a reciprocal trade agreement designed to expand their commercial relations.

ADVERSE DECISION BY APPEALS COURT STIRS SPECULATION

New Jersey Test Case May Effect 3-County Program Near Here

LAND UNDER OPTION

Tracts Would Be Made for New "Settlers"

A decision of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals gives rise to some speculation regarding the future of the projected resettlement program for a broad section embracing several thousand acres in southern Fayette county, northern Ross county and eastern Pickaway county.

The three to two, ruling of the Appellate Court judges was given in a test case which resulted from plans for a model community project in New Jersey.

Whether a resettlement project such as the one contemplated here would come under the provision invalidated by the decision is conjectural as also is the possibility of carrying the question to the U. S. Supreme court.

Just what the status of the of the embryo project here at present time remains obscure. Representatives of the Federal government, it is understood, have been here off and on, for several months whipping their plans into more concrete form.

From authentic sources information has come that families now living in the Muskingum Valley whose properties will be absorbed by the Conservancy project there will be given the opportunity to take up land in the new and comparatively rich farming section of the proposed Resettlement area here under special purchase contracts.

The government has taken options on approximately 3,000 acres in the section reached from Washington C. H. over the Chillicothe pike.

Washington C. H. would be the nearest city of consequence and is considered the logical trading center.

JUNTA OF SOLDIERS NOW RULES BOLIVIA

SOCIALISTIC REGIME LOOMS AFTER BLOODLESS REVOLT.

La Paz, Bolivia, May 18.—(P)—A provisional junta of soldiers and Socialists ruled Bolivia today after the civilian government of President Jose Luis Tejada Sorzano fell in a peaceful military coup.

The new council called war hero, Col. David Toro back from the Gran Chaco to become president, gained suspension of a general strike movement and proclaimed as its objective to "orient the nation toward a socialistic state by prudent, gradual means, without convulsions."

Advices from the interior indicated absolute tranquility prevailed throughout this South American state of almost 3,000,000 people. The government overturn was the second to arise in the aftermath of the long Chaco war. Bolivia's soldiers seized power just three months after their former enemies in Paraguay ousted President Eusebio Ayala and installed Col. Rafael Franco as chief executive.

INTERESTING TALK

GIVEN BY CHANNING BEEBE,
AFRICAN EXPLORER

One of the most interesting chapels that has been presented this year was that given by Channing Beebe, an African Explorer. By the use of slides which were operated by his wife, and various African trophies, he was able to make his talk "From Ants to Elephants" interesting and realistic.

Beebe explained that there are three thousand tribes and three thousand languages in this "Dark Continent", and that perhaps this is the only country in which it is possible to live without money. The people supply most of their needs from the palm trees which furnishes food, shelter and clothing. In this country there are few roads, only trails which are worn smooth by the natives and animals.

The people have few pleasures and their greatest one is smoking. Every man carries a knife which is made from crude metal smelted on forges in their homes and hammered out by heating them with rocks.

Beebe and his wife were in the cannibal country seven months. Slides were shown of many natives and numerous articles which he had brought back belonging to them were displayed. One of these was an idol "Wangee" which they thought of as a protector. The speaker explained that the natives felt secure with one of these in their homes. He showed the student body a war club which was used by the natives. This article was a long stick made of wood with a huge knob on the end of it. Another thing of interest was their kind of musical instrument which made a very soft, tinkling kind of music.

Among the slides were pictures of many animals. The hippopotamus was perhaps, the most interesting. The speaker explained that this animal has a stomach eleven feet long and that it takes five bushel of vegetation to fill it. He had with him several tusks and teeth of these ferocious animals. Other slides were of hyenas, rhinoceroses, lions and monkeys.

Beebe told of two of his most exciting experiences. The first was of army ants. These ants come in droves and attack everything which comes in their way. An illustration was that of a zebra. If these ants attack an animal of that size, in less than two hours nothing more than the bones will be found. He told how these ants swarmed into their tent and of the narrow escape they had.

Elephants, naturally, were the biggest topic in the lecture. He explained the difference between the African elephant and the India found in our circuses. The African elephant is much bigger than the others. Jumbo, a real African elephant, which was in the Barnum's circus in 1865, measured ten feet seven inches tall from his shoulder to the floor, he said.

Journalists Believed to Be Anti-Italian Are Ex- pelled from Country

By EDWARD J. NEIL

(Copyright 1936, By Associated Press)

Addis Ababa, May 17.—(By military plane to Asmara, Eritrea, May 18)—Murderers caught in the act of killing and looting, plunderers found prowling armed and bandits who refused to give up arms in accordance with a proclamation of martial law have been executed after trials in the last few days as Italian authorities seek to calm swiftly the situation in this former Ethiopian capital.

After waiting a week for the scene to quiet itself, but with sporadic outbreaks still prevalent, the authorities are following military law to the letter with fantastic scenes resulting.

Several journalists have left Addis Ababa already under compulsion, taking the train to Djibouti, French Somaliland, and more will follow.

As a result of the decisions of military tribunals, rifles and machine guns of carabinieri are being taken out sometimes at dusk, carrying out sentence of death for the marauders who burned and pillaged Addis Ababa in four days of rioting, resulting in more than 800 native deaths, before the Italians arrived May 5.

Four newspapermen and three other persons, declared guilty of anti-Italian activities and espionage have been expelled from Ethiopia.

The newspapermen expelled are George Steer, correspondent for the London and New York Times, Isadore Nebenzahl, a representative of The Havas (French) news agency, Alkeos Angelopoulos, a Hearst correspondent, and M. D. Robillard, director of an Ethiopian newspaper.

The victor, named "Can't Take It," took three hops for a total jump of 12 feet three inches to win the championship final yesterday.

"Jack Dalton," reared on the ranch of the late Will Rogers at Oologah, Okla., placed second with a three-hop jump of 12 feet 2 inches.

The jubilee is held in commemoration of Mark Twain and his classic short story about the champion "Dan'l Webster" who was cheated out of his laurels when someone loaded him with buckshot.

BARN DESTROYED LATE SATURDAY

A small barn owned by Everett Alleman, located on Briar Avenue and Jupiter street, Millwood, was almost completely destroyed by fire shortly after five o'clock Saturday evening.

The building was doomed before the alarm was spread, and firemen laid one line of hose and prevented the structure from being entirely wiped out.

Fire in an adjacent building was also extinguished after the structure was damaged.

The fire started inside the structure from an undetermined cause.

Rev. Wesley Wibley of North Lewisburg, conducted the services, and was assisted by Rev. J. H. Powell.

The choir sang Beautiful Isle of Somewhere, In The Morning and Rock of Ages.

PURSE GRABBER GETS $20 HERE

Miss Emma Smith Victim of Holdup

A purse-snatcher obtained about $20 Saturday night shortly after eleven o'clock, when he seized Miss Emma Smith's purse as she was walking toward home in East Court street in company with another woman.

The thief, described as being white, about 20 years of age, wearing white shirt with sleeves rolled up, dark trousers, and bare-headed, appeared suddenly while the two women were almost in front of the J. M. Baker residence. He forced his way between the two women, grabbed Miss Smith's purse from under her arm, and fled, vanishing between nearby houses.

Miss Smith, who is cashier at the White Tile Meat Market, came back up town and notified the police who made a search, but the man escaped.

Apparently it was someone who had followed Miss Smith and waited a favorable opportunity to grab her purse, which contained about $20 and some papers.

STREET REPAIR STARTED MONDAY

MUCH WORK AHEAD OF REPAIR GANG

Street repair work was started in real earnest Monday morning, and the repair crew is expected to be kept busy for sometime applying tar-bound patches to the thousands of holes cut into the streets last spring.

Material for the work arrived last week and the crew was put to work Monday, working on some of the worst damaged and most important tar-bound streets first.

Nearly every tar-bound street in the city suffered damage during the spring thaw and have been growing worse as traffic increases the size of the holes and breaks in the surface of the paving.

Director Recommends District Projects Be Made Up by July

Columbus, O., May 18—(AP)—Works Progress Administration officials went ahead today with plans to continue their program after July 1, original date set for its termination, while a task of raising between $8,000,000 and $10,000,000 for direct relief lay in the vacant chambers of the Ohio legislature.

The legislature, returning from a six-week recess Wednesday, probably will consider nothing but the relief problem created, state relief commission officials said, by failure of the last $11,500,000 emergency relief measure to function properly, coupled with refusal of a number of counties to approve proposed utility excise bonds in last Tuesday's balloting. The last measure expires July 1.

A WPA spokesman said that while the WPA had received no definite word from Washington on possible continuance of the program, "every plan has been made to continue it and when Congress approves the new appropriations bill with possible amendments to take care of the WPA."

Dr. Carl Watson, Ohio WPA chief, sent instructions several weeks ago to all district WPA supervisors to line up possible projects for execution and completion after July 1.

WPA employment last week was 157,000, thirty thousand workers under the March peak. The spokesman said it probably would drop to 145,000 by the middle of June and added that indications pointed to a large number of the workers cut off going into private employment.

Only $5,200,000 of the original $11,500,000 appropriations has been spent to date. Commission officials said only $2,000,000 more would be spent July 1, the end of the life of the law.

Only $85,000 has been advanced from the $3,000,000 Rotary fund included in the appropriation because none of the counties eligible for advances have made provision for returning them.

Counties were expected to fight to have the new relief law provide for allocations on the basis of need. The present law calls for allocations on a basis of 1933 expenditures.

WEDDING PARTY DIES IN CRASH

At Least 18 Lives Lost in Traffic Accidents in Ohio Over Week-end

By The Associated Press

A wedding party tragedy at Youngstown Saturday in which seven persons lost their lives, eight fatal accidents Sunday and several scattered mishaps on the state's highways gave Ohio a total of at least eighteen traffic fatalities for the week-end.

A group funeral will be held Wednesday for seven wedding celebrants who died as a result of the collision of their automobile and a freight train six miles west of Youngstown Saturday. All seven victims—Samuel and John Carozzino, Peter, Patrick Dominic and Carl Pachell and Guy Petra—were relatives of the bride.

Five were killed in or near Cincinnati over the week-end. Louis Weber, 55, stone cutter, was killed when a freight train struck him as he was pushing his stalled automobile from a crossing. Thelma Woosley, 19, died in a collision. Kenneth Corn of Rushville, Ind., received fatal injuries when his car skidded into a ditch near Harrison, O. Mrs. Clara Earhart, 48, was pinned against a telephone pole by an automobile Saturday night and killed. Robert McMullen, 13, was struck and fatally injured at a street crossing.

Hugh Nichols, 66, died soon after a collision in Akron.

Mrs. Harry MacIvaine of Lakewood, was fatally injured when the automobile in which she was riding left the highway near Salem. Her husband was seriously injured.

Roy Brown, 46, was killed near Union City, northwest of Greenville, when two automobiles collided.

Frances E. Deal, 20, of Radnor, near Delaware, died from a skull fracture after a collision near Delaware.

John Hall, 35, Detroit, was killed when the automobile in which he was riding left the highway and struck a pole near Toledo.

OUTLOOK BRIGHTER FOR COLLEGE NOW

MORE JOBS AVAILABLE THAN DURING DEPRESSION WHEN THEY CONTINUED SCHOOL

Columbus, O., May 18.—(AP)—High school seniors of four years ago who went on to college because they couldn't find a job, found today through a state-wide survey that the depression had done them a favor.

In June they will be graduated from college with the training and equipment to handle better jobs, and they will find plenty of jobs awaiting them.

Of 14 Ohio colleges queried, a dozen said prospects were better than in several years, and only two replied that placements appeared "slower."

A few years ago Ohio State University faculty members were hunting jobs—any kind—for their graduates. Now the problem has changed to one of selection—of placing the right man in the right position. The shortage now is in trained men rather than in jobs, the university reported. On file at the university are numerous requests for trained men which cannot be filled.

TRUCK DAMAGED SUES FOR $700

Charles Blide by his next friend, Loren Blue, filing suit in Common Pleas Court, Monday, against The Brownell Company, asked $700 damages as result of a truck wreck in a bridge on U. S. 35, (Chillicothe road) two miles northwest of Austin, last July 1.

Plaintiff, who is represented by John Hill, says the accident occurred in Ross county, as the plaintiff's truck was in the bridge, and that his truck was struck and wrecked by the defendant's truck while defendant's truck was being operated in a careless and negligent manner.

That damage to plaintiff's truck was $300 and that further damage of $400 was sustained by being deprived of the use of the truck he claims.

Camel's Aid to Digestion...the Increase in Alkalinity ...Confirmed by Science

Hurry, worry, and noise tend to slow down the flow of the digestive fluids. Scientists have found that smoking Camels encourages the normal flow of digestive fluids...alkaline digestive fluids...so necessary to the enjoyment of food and for good digestion. Smoke Camels...for their cheering "lift"...for digestion's sake.

What will you have? Perhaps Boris Polonaise, Supreme of Halibut à la Russe, an ice with demi-tasse and—Camels. Camels are a part of the art of dining today. M. Bonaudi, banquet manager of the Pierre, says: "Camels are most popular here."

"MY MEALS wouldn't be complete without a Camel," says H. J. Herbert, busy store manager. "I haven't much time for eating or resting. I've found that Camels stimulate good digestion—help my food to settle right. Man, what a taste Camels have."

GEORGE REIS won the famous Gold Cup Trophy race three straight times! "I'm a steady smoker," he says, "take a Camel as often as I like. I eat heartily, smoke Camels, and enjoy good digestion."

A. SPEAR, engineer of the C. & N.W. "400," says: "I light up a Camel after meals. It makes digestion easier."

AERIALIST Mlle. Vera Kimris says: "I welcome the way Camels help digestion and good feeling."

The Orient

Reports of late developments in the Orient are very disturbing to those who hope for peace. The war clouds seem to be growing blacker and more menacing as Russian and Japanese patrols are again clashing in the Manchoukuoan border after a short period of quiet.

More disturbing, however, are the reports of observers that Japan is preparing to wage a war of conquest in China with the purpose of taking over the whole of that ancient land, with its hundreds of millions of people a tremendous reservoir from which Nippon could obtain men by the millions for the armies of the Mikado.

Italy, it is likely Japan reasons, defied the League of Nations, edicts and the nations of Europe and carried on successfully a war of conquest, so why not covetous Japan and its greedy war power.

Thus does the failure of the League of Nations to function, the short sighted jealousy and selfishness of Great Britain and France, their failure to act for civilization and justice and their determination to pursue a "what's in it for me" course create a condition which may well be regarded as likely to bring war in the Orient—a war which may become world wide and all inclusive.

Well may diplomats shift from consideration of the conditions in Europe to a study of the later developments in the Far East.

Iris and Peony Time

The severe cold weather of the past winter not only killed the rose bushes—that portion above ground—but it killed, also our forsythia, or "yellow bells", as some call it. We missed the golden bloom which, of late years, has been a feature of early spring. It stunted the dogwoods and the redbuds as well as the japoicas and other early spring blooming bushes and trees.

But the iris and the peonies "weathered the storm" and are blooming gorgeously. This is the time when both are at their best and door yards where these flowers have been planted are repaying with splendid dividends in satisfaction and pleasure what little attention they have demanded during the past year.

Both of these decorative free blooming plants require very little attention. Some of them get no attention and they are, notwithstanding, among the most dependable and beautiful flowers of the later weeks of spring, as we date that season, more by weather conditions than by the calendars.

Iris and peony time. It is one of the most beautiful of the many beautiful periods in the year.

Austria's Changes

The revolutionary changes that have occurred in Austria during the past week will, beyond doubt, have a sobering influence on Mussolini and do much to remove, for a time at least the menace of war in Europe.

While the new regime in Austria is not hostile to Italy, yet it is unalterably opposed to Fascism in Austria which, to a very marked degree, reduces the power of Mussolini in that fragment of the once proud empire over which the Hapsburgs ruled.

While the old regime dominated Austria, at least a considerable portion of it, it meant that it was part of the fascist empire and, as such, subject to Mussolini's decrees.

Italy's loss of Austria means that H Duce must look elsewhere in Europe for an ally and the prospect of finding an ally is not, at the present time, at all promising.

While the present Austria is but a fragment of pre-war Austria, yet it is quite desirable to Italy as an ally, not only on account of the men it may furnish to march in Mussolini's armies but because it has great natural resources which Italy would need in case of war.

Charles P. Stewart Says:

EMERGENCY SETUPS DOOMED BY F. D. R.

By CHARLES P. STEWART

Washington, May 18.—If President Roosevelt is re-elected he will completely eliminate or radically curtail emergency set-ups created earlier in his present term to deal with depression conditions, according to talk in Washington.

For that matter, the job will await his successor, even if today's White House incumbent is defeated.

It is a prospect to make any presidential aspirant shudder.

THOUSANDS TO GO

The very suggestion that Secretary of the Interior Harold I. Ickes plans a 25 per cent reduction in his PWA staff has created a commotion that stirs the entire capital.

Ickes is not actually reducing immediately. He merely prepared a list of those who will go because the administration and congress favor granting new relief millions to Harry L. Hopkins, head of WPA.

But PWA workers are scared apently at the mere thought that their positions are endangered. They simply are inundating their senators and representatives with appeals and demands for protection. And there are, throughout the country or here in Washington, 9,000 of them. Only 2,250 are immediately threatened, but they don't know which are which; therefore the whole 9,000 are frightened.

FRIENDS SWELL CHORUS

Nine thousand isn't the sum total, either.

Each of the 9,000 has friends, and many of them dependents, to swell the chorus.

All of the 9,000 have more or less political influence, too, or they would not have been able to get on the government payroll initially.

When the slash finally is made—and it seems a certainty—the numerical strength of the howl will be trimmed from 9,000 (plus dependents and friends) to 2,250 (plus).

But it will be more intensive. Those who suffer will screech worse than at the mere danger of suffering.

MULTIPLY THIS!

Now, multiply the difficulties involved in this 25 per cent liquidation of PWA, by the difficulties involved in the 100 per cent or less difficulties involved in the liquidation of the:

ECW, EHFA, FCA, FCC, FDIC, FEAR, HLC, NEC, NLRB, NRC, NYA, REA, RFC, SEC, SSB, TVA, WPA and other emergency set-ups (all listed in the Congressional Library)—

And it must become apparent

ADMINISTRATION'S THEORY

The administration's theory is that, with improving times (if and when), the government's alphabetical workers will drift naturally into private employment.

But, for some reason, folk appear to like to work for the government. Uncle Sam's jobs are secure, and pensioned. Government jobs may not appeal to the super-ambitious, but the average individual evidently likes one. It is an old saying of public servants that "few die and none resign."

Secretary Ickes' policy is not to wait for death or the hopelessness of resignation.

NOT IN CIVIL SERVICE

Alphabetical emergency jobs are not, to be sure, on a civil service basis.

Their incumbents can be dropped unceremoniously.

However, they are trying to make their posts permanent. To a considerable extent, undoubtedly, they will succeed in doing it.

Then their various bureaus will last forever.

HOW MY SONGS OF HER BEGAN

God made my lady lovely to behold;
Above the painter's dream he set her face,
And wrought her body in divinest
grace;
He touched the brown hair with a sense of gold,
And in the perfect form He did enfold
What was alone as perfect, the sweet heart;
Knowledge most rare to her He did impart,
And filled with love and worship
all her days,
And then God thought Him how it would be well
To give her music, and to Love He said,
"Bring thou some minstrel now that he may tell
How fair and sweet a thing My hands have made."

High Spots In Ohio History

From the Galbraith collection of Ohio Histories. Written for the Associated Press.

Our great continental river, "The Father of Waters," narrowly avoided the name of "The Conception River."

In 1672, Frontenac, the French colonial governor, commissioned Joliet to discover the river.

At Mackinaw, Joliet joined Marquette—two names that will always be joined in western annals. There Marquette placed the enterprise under the patronage of the Immaculate Virgin, stipulating that if she granted them success in finding the river, locating and describing it, the river should be named "The Conception."

Joliet does not seem to have been greatly concerned about the name of the great river, whose discovery they had completed, but Marquette strove hard to keep his pledge to name the river "The Conception." Yet somehow it was displaced for the Indian name "Mississippi."

Dinner Stories

A salesman was eloquent about the merits of a certain vacuum cleaner, but the woman of the house wasn't impressed. She suggested that he talk less and show her what the machine could do.

He took off his coat, fitted up the cleaner, thrust his arm into the chimney of the open fireplace and brought out a big handful of soot, which he scattered over the parlor carpet. He then shoveled same ashes from the grate and sprinkled them over the rug, adding a big handful of soil from the garden. Then he smiled and rubbed his hands.

"Now," he said, "I'll show you what this vacuum cleaner can do. You'll be surprised, madam. Where's the electric switch?"

"Switch?" echoed the surprised woman. "We use gas."

San Marino issued this stamp in 1933 to commemorate the first flight of the German dirigible, Graf Zeppelin, in regular Europe to South America service.

A NEW YORKER AT LARGE

By JACK STINNETT

New York—Vesper A. Schlenker is an acoustical engineer.

He was in the U. S. Army's field artillery . . . then the signal corps . . . a first lieutenant who sailed through the officers' training courses with high honors. He stepped out of the army into the Bell laboratories where he did much work with sound. Nine years ago, Mr. Schlenker set up his own shop.

We prefer to call him a noise detective. We have been preferring it since a friend of his told us about a musician Mr. Schlenker attended. He showed no signs of perturbation throughout the piano concert but when it was half over, he called the friends' attention to a very faint vibration which seemed to top off certain chords.

"What is it?" the friend whispered. "Probably a coin, somewhere in the sounding box," answered Mr. Schlenker without hesitation.

A diligent search following the recital disclosed a penny hidden in the space between the binding posts and the side of the box.

Mr. Schlenker tells us that the only sounds which irritate him are those he can not immediately explain.

He analyzes sounds which he can not readily define for relaxation . . . a sort of postman's holiday hobby . . . but one which made it possible for him to design, with apt instruments, a "sound filter"

Flashes of Life

ARMY VICTORY.

Memphis, Tenn.—Reserve officers of two army detachments were working on tactical problems at the outskirts of the city when Col. William J. Bacon announced: "I smell a still." The colonel—who also is sheriff of Shelby county, deployed his forces, found and confiscated a 12-barrel still and 24,000 gallons of mash from which had been made a strategic retreat.

UNEXPECTED TOURIST.

Charlotte, N. C.—Nonchalantly it crossed a busy street intersection, until its strange appearance caused a commotion and the fire department was called. The firemen identified it as an armadillo, a bony-plated, strong-clawed animal, common in South America but rarely found north of Texas in the United States. How it reached Charlotte, the firemen were unable to learn.

BENCH TO BEACH.

Long Beach, Calif.—'Twas a fine spring day, and while a jury debated a damage case, Superior Judge Frank G. Swain went for a swim in a lagoon across the street from the court building.

When a bailiff hailed him from the beach, quoth his honor: "The water's fine. Bring them down and I'll receive the verdict." So, in dripping trunks instead of the customary black robe, Judge Swain accepted the verdict, dismissed the jury, and resumed his swim.

IT WASN'T THE HUMIDITY.

Chicago—It was a warm spring day, but in the apartment of Philip Scops it was a lot warmer. "I asked the janitor to turn on the hot water," he complained to the police, "instead he turned on the heat. He says I asked for heat and I'm going to get it. We're practically being roasted." Policeman Edward Pakczynski persuaded the janitor to desist.

for a pipe organ motor in a synagogue in Buffalo. The filter cured a noise which had been interrupting services for months.

Mr. Schlenker has solved acoustical problems for theaters, lecture halls, private homes and factories. He thinks that perhaps the reason he enjoys his work so much, is that every problem is different. One can never tell about a noise.

Probably the job he enjoyed most was the one which took him yachting.

A 62-year-old member of the New York Yacht club has a passion for clocks that is second only to his feeling for yachts. His yacht is fairly alive with clocks. Every stateroom, corridor, and even the decks, fore and aft, have clocks controlled by a master clock in the captain's cabin. The hands move forward each 30 seconds.

The yachtsman's passion is matched by an antipathy for noise. He found that the clock in his stateroom made an intermittent catarrh of sound at night. He fumed at the clock company. The president of the clock company fumed at his engineers and finally called in Mr. Schlenker. For 70 hours, workmen on three floors of the clock factory turned out gadgets designed by Mr. Schlenker. Then for eight hours, the acoustical engineer, the clock company president and a corps of mechanics worked feverishly as the yacht plowed from the Hudson to Newport for the regatta.

By the time Newport was reached, the only way one could hear the hands of the clock move forward was to press one's ear against it.

"When you get a noise like that, the only thing to do is isolate it," says Mr. Schlenker. "That's what I did . . . isolated it completely." Mr. Schlenker says "Isolated" the way a warrior would say "annihilated."

OHIO ODDITIES

By R. C. HALL

Ohio has parallels for almost every place or event any state can boast but it may surprise some people to learn it has a "Yellowstone" of its own. "The Yellowstone of Ohio" is a natural park situated on U. S. Highway No. 56, about 23 miles west of Chillicothe. It contains Ohio's largest known chasm, called Rocky Fork Gorge, The Cave of the Springs, the Witch's Cave, Phantom Cave, Bear Cave, Dancing Cave, McKinnle Cave and Marble Cave. Hundreds of unique rock formations may be observed.

The first engine used on a California railroad was brought around the Horn by sailing ship.

HARMING in its every detail was the bridge-tea entertained Saturday afternoon at the Washington Country Club by Mrs. Troy T. Junk in compliment to her daughter, Miss Janet, to announce her approaching marriage to Mr. Louis Naret Baer. Distinctive interest is stirred by the announcement of the engagement, which lists two of the city's prominent families. Miss Emily Rowe and Miss Dorothy Hudson, two much-feted brides-elect, shared in the honors of the afternoon.

The country club provided a most attractive setting for the affair, which assembled forty guests, and was extremely colorful with a great variety of early summer flowers artistically arranged at every point of vantage throughout the clubhouse.

The afternoon's bridge game progressed gaily and at its close the delightful hostess presented first and second high score trophies to Mrs. Howard S. Harper and Miss Anna Baker. Miss Junk received a lovely gift from her mother and Miss Rowe and Miss Hudson were so recipients of beautiful favors.

Not until the hour of serving was the announcement made. The tea table, decorated by the Buck florists, was a picture. From the center bowl of deep ivory Johanna Hill roses rose tall rainbow tapers and the base of the bowl, crystal chandeliers were entwined with garlands of maline and smilax, which trailed gracefully over the lace tablecloth. The service table was also extremely pretty, its centerpiece a crystal bowl of red roses and anthurus. Gleaming silver trays

3 NEGROES NABBED FOR TWO ASSAULTS

NURSES, HOWEVER, ASSERT MAJOR SUSPECT IS NOT CHICAGO SLUGGER

Chicago, May 18.—(AP)—Three nurses viewed Myles Anderson, 29, negro rag picker, at a police show-up today, and said he was not the man who assaulted a student nurse last week.

Anderson was picked up for questioning in the attack on Miss Lois Rickert, of Detroit, a student nurse at St. Luke's Hospital who was struck in the head by a brick before her assailant was frightened away. He also was quizzed in connection with the brutal murder of Mrs. Lillian Guild, 59, gift shop proprietor beaten to death in a Y. W. C. A. hotel room May 9, a few blocks from the hospital.

Police Sergeant Jack Hanrahan said Anderson, Charles Dudley, 33, negro, and Thomas Starr, 31, another pushcart man, would be questioned further.

The prisoner is six feet one inch tall and weighs 195 pounds.

Dudley was taken into custody Saturday when he was found wearing trousers which matched to a coat found in the elevator shaft after the assault on Miss Rickert. Dudley said the trousers belonged to Anderson.

by Chief Justice Hughes, who contended the act might be sustained "in relation to the provisions for marketing in interstate commerce."

"The decisions of the courts below, so far as they accomplish that result, should be affirmed," he asserted.

The majority held that congress in the law had exceeded its power under the constitution in attempting to regulate interstate commerce.

The decision holding NRA unconstitutional was cited as a precedent.

Constitutionality of the Guffey Act to permit federal control of prices, wages and hours in the bituminous industry had been challenged by James Walter Carter, West Virginia and Virginia producer, and by 19 Kentucky operators.

In the Carter case, the district of Columbia Supreme Court upheld price fixing, but declared unconstitutional the provisions for regulating wages and hours.

The Western Kentucky Federal District Court upheld the entire act. "Working conditions are obviously local conditions," today's opinion reminded.

The majority also held that it was an improper delegation of power to permit a majority to dominate a minority so far as wages and hours in an industry are concerned.

"The delegation," the opinion asserted, "is so clearly arbitrary, and so clearly a denial of rights safeguarded by the due process clause of the fifth amendment, that it is unnecessary to do more than refer to decisions of this court which foreclose the question."

The NRA decision also was cited in this connection.

Other decision of the court were: Commission men buying and selling livestock at the Chicago

In Jewel Gang?

Mrs. Laura Becker

Seized in Chicago with her husband, Jack Becker, and four others as suspects in a jewelry store hold-up gang, to which the slaying of an Indianapolis officer is laid, Mrs. Laura Becker, above, was held by police. Among those arrested was Alfred Brady, reputed ringleader of the gang, who police said confessed to and then repudiated his confession to the robberies and slaying.

Union Stockyards lost today in their effort to collect rates higher than those authorized by Secretary Wallace.

A New Mexico law which taxes motor vehicles being transported through the state for sale was held unconstitutional.

An effort by Alabama to tax gasoline sold to the Federal government was held unconstitutional.

Cincinnati, May 18.—(AP)—Stockholders of Appalachian Coals Inc., will meet Friday to determine the future of that gigantic coal marketing agency in view of the constitutionality of the Guffey act.

Activities of Appalachian have been at a virtual standstill during operation of the Guffey act, which deprived it of the price fixing function that formed the heart of the organization. No coal has been sold for months and none will be sold until new contracts have been entered into with the stockholders.

Appalachian, at the time of its greatest activity, controlled the marketing of approximately 60,000,000 tons of high volatile coal produced in Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia.

A new board of directors will be elected at the Friday meeting, which will be preceded by meetings in the eight districts of the organization.

Politics at Random

Trenton, N. J., May 18.—(AP)—Injection of Gov. Harold G. Hoffman's intervention in the Bruno Hauptmann case as an issue heightened interest today in Tuesday's presidential preference primary test between forces of Alf M. Landon and William E. Borah.

Making the Hauptmann case his only issue, Franklin W. Fort fought the governor for one of four places as delegate-at-large to the Republican national convention.

O. D. Keep, Fort's campaign manager, charged that although Fort was assured of election, defeat of Hoffman was not sure because of a "deal" between Hoffman and Frank Hague, state Democratic leader, "which calls for the casting by machine Democrats, voting as one-day Republicans, of at least 25,000 'bullet' votes for Hoffman."

Keep called on Republicans to vote for a full slate of four in the field of five, marking their ballots for all but Hoffman, lest one of the noncombatant candidates become the heater one.

Both Hoffman and Fort are pledged to Landon.

Bracketed with former Ambassador Walter E. Edge, Mrs. Edna B. Conklin, national committeewoman, and Edward D. Duffield, Newark insurance executive, as the four candidates for delegate-at-large having Republican state organization support, the governor fought to finish first.

Confronted with reports of sizeable Fort strength in the northern New Jersey suburban area, Hoffman campaigned as intensively as for any of the elective offices he has held.

Neither Governor Landon nor Senator Borah formally entered the New Jersey presidential preference primary, but supporters posted their names and delegate slates in almost all the state's fourteen congressional districts.

On the Democratic side, Henry T. Breckenridge, legal adviser to Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, ran in the presidential primary unopposed, but the Democratic state organization of Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City was running delegates to their national convention pledged to President Roosevelt. The Hague candidates were certain of election.

Socorro, N. M., May 18.—(AP)—Prospects of a "showdown" floor fight between supporters of Gov. Clyde Tingle and Rep. J. J. Dempsey heightened interest today as nearly 1,000 New Mexico Democrats gathered to select a six-vote delegation to the National convention.

Observers predicted the convention would make a 12-man delegation instructed for renomination of President Roosevelt.

Washington, May 18.—(AP)—Senator Hastings (R-Del.) has challenged President Roosevelt's statement that the Federal deficit this year "is about 3,000,000,000" and that the national income has risen $30,000,000,000 this year as compared with that of 1932.

Hastings said Chairman Marriner Eccles of the Federal Reserve Board had repudiated the income figure and that Secretary Morgenthau had placed the deficit at "close to $6,000,000,000."

A statement by Chairman Henry P. Fletcher of the Republican National committee, said that government funds were used for "a Democratic publicity campaign of unprecedented magnitude."

A week-end political development included a statement from Carl G. Bachmann, Borah's campaign manager, in which he claimed 25 Pennsylvania delegates and "eight or nine" from West Virginia.

Walter S. Hallahan, Republican National committeeman from West Virginia, has claimed all that state's delegates will support Landon, except Bachmann.

Final tally of the Oregon primary votes showed that Borah, unopposed on the presidential ballot, received 84,203 votes compared with 81,771 for President Roosevelt, unopposed on the Democratic preference ballot.

Oldest Wire Fence In Ohio Removed From Fayette County To Peoria Factory

A few days ago, Mr. Beatty, Manager of the Fayette Producers Association, returned 20 rods of old Keystone woven wire fence to the Keystone factory at Peoria, Illinois, that was put up more than 40 years ago. Some say it was erected 45 years ago.

This fence was still giving good service on the farm of Sam J. Hoppes, near Good Hope, Ohio. Jacob Post owned this farm originally and he bought the fence from Steve Garringer at Washington Court House.

Joe Dixon set the first post and claims this fence outlasted two sets of wood posts. At the time the fence was first stretched, little was known about putting up wire fence, as the modern stretchers were then unknown.

The Keystone Wire Fence Company was among the first manufacturers then in existence and this may have been one of the first pieces of fence built in their little shed-plant at Trenton, Ill. The fence weaving machine was built by hand and the power was steam from an old threshing outfit.

Since this fence was manufactured and erected, the Keystone Steel and Wire Company, now in Peoria, Illinois, have grown to be the largest independent fence factory in the world. The fence sent back has the Keystone shaped mesh, which style has long been discontinued as the Keystone Company now makes the well known "Red Brand" style of fence, the kind with the top wire painted red.

The plant shown in the picture is the one in which the Keystone business started, back in 1880. This is the building in which the fence taken down by Mr. Hoppes may have been made.

The Keystone Company is planning to rebuild the original plant at their present location in Peoria, as well as the old handloom on which the first piece of Keystone fence was made. It is not known how many rods of this hand woven fence they could make in a month, in those days, but it is known that the present mills have a capacity of more than a million rods per month so there will be a lot of contrast between the first plant and that of the present.

$4,880,000 law was void because of improper delegation of powers to the president, invasion of state's rights and a lack of definite authorizations.

The court said the law "attempts to reach and control matters over which the constitution has given Congress no powers."

The decision is regarded as a direct blow to the Resettlement Administration.

In a test case which resulted from plans for a model community at Franklin, in Somerset County, New Jersey, the appellate Court found there was no constitutional power "conferred upon the federal government to regulate 'housing' or to 'resettle' population."

Rexford G. Tugwell, in charge of the Resettlement Administration, deferred comment pending study of the opinion. It was written by associate Justice Van Orsdal and concurred in by Chief Justice Martin and associate Justice Robb.

The other two members, Justices Grouver and Stephens, agreed that constitutional authority was lacking in this case, but said the court should not have passed upon validity of the entire program.

The appellate court reversed the ruling of the District of Columbia Supreme Court, which had upheld the validity of the resettlement program and denied an injunction against the New Jersey project sought by a group of taxpayers.

After reviewing provisions of the 1935 relief act which appropriated $4,880,000,000 and the executive orders of President Roosevelt which set up the resettlement agency, Justice Van Orsdal said: "This is delegation running riot."

Politics at Random

Trenton, N. J., May 18.—(AP)—Injection of Gov. Harold G. Hoffman's intervention in the Bruno Hauptmann case as an issue heightened interest today in Tuesday's presidential preference primary test between forces of Alf M. Landon and William E. Borah.

Making the Hauptmann case his only issue, Franklin W. Fort fought the governor for one of four places as delegate-at-large to the Republican national convention.

O. D. Keep, Fort's campaign manager, charged that although Fort was assured of election, defeat of Hoffman was not sure because of a "deal" between Hoffman and Frank Hague, state Democratic leader, "which calls for the casting by machine Democrats, voting as one-day Republicans, of at least 25,000 'bullet' votes for Hoffman."

Keep called on Republicans to vote for a full slate of four in the field of five, marking their ballots for all but Hoffman, lest one of the noncombatant candidates become the heater one.

Both Hoffman and Fort are pledged to Landon.

Bracketed with former Ambassador Walter E. Edge, Mrs. Edna B. Conklin, national committeewoman, and Edward D. Duffield, Newark insurance executive, as the four candidates for delegate-at-large having Republican state organization support, the governor fought to finish first.

Confronted with reports of sizeable Fort strength in the northern New Jersey suburban area, Hoffman campaigned as intensively as for any of the elective offices he has held.

Neither Governor Landon nor Senator Borah formally entered the New Jersey presidential preference primary, but supporters posted their names and delegate slates in almost all the state's fourteen congressional districts.

On the Democratic side, Henry T. Breckenridge, legal adviser to Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, ran in the presidential primary unopposed, but the Democratic state organization of Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City was running delegates to their national convention pledged to President Roosevelt. The Hague candidates were certain of election.

Socorro, N. M., May 18.—(AP)—Prospects of a "showdown" floor fight between supporters of Gov. Clyde Tingle and Rep. J. J. Dempsey heightened interest today as nearly 1,000 New Mexico Democrats gathered to select a six-vote delegation to the National convention.

Observers predicted the convention would make a 12-man delegation instructed for renomination of President Roosevelt.

Washington, May 18.—(AP)—Senator Hastings (R-Del.) has challenged President Roosevelt's statement that the Federal deficit this year "is about 3,000,000,000" and that the national income has risen $30,000,000,000 this year as compared with that of 1932.

Hastings said Chairman Marriner Eccles of the Federal Reserve Board had repudiated the income figure and that Secretary Morgenthau had placed the deficit at "close to $6,000,000,000."

A statement by Chairman Henry P. Fletcher of the Republican National committee, said that government funds were used for "a Democratic publicity campaign of unprecedented magnitude."

A week-end political development included a statement from Carl G. Bachmann, Borah's campaign manager, in which he claimed 25 Pennsylvania delegates and "eight or nine" from West Virginia.

Walter S. Hallahan, Republican National committeeman from West Virginia, has claimed all that state's delegates will support Landon, except Bachmann.

Final tally of the Oregon primary votes showed that Borah, unopposed on the presidential ballot, received 84,203 votes compared with 81,771 for President Roosevelt, unopposed on the Democratic preference ballot.

Oldest Wire Fence In Ohio Removed From Fayette County To Peoria Factory

A few days ago, Mr. Beatty, Manager of the Fayette Producers Association, returned 20 rods of old Keystone woven wire fence to the Keystone factory at Peoria, Illinois, that was put up more than 40 years ago. Some say it was erected 45 years ago.

This fence was still giving good service on the farm of Sam J. Hoppes, near Good Hope, Ohio. Jacob Post owned this farm originally and he bought the fence from Steve Garringer at Washington Court House.

Joe Dixon set the first post and claims this fence outlasted two sets of wood posts. At the time the fence was first stretched, little was known about putting up wire fence, as the modern stretchers were then unknown.

The Keystone Wire Fence Company was among the first manufacturers then in existence and this may have been one of the first pieces of fence built in their little shed-plant at Trenton, Ill. The fence weaving machine was built by hand and the power was steam from an old threshing outfit.

Since this fence was manufactured and erected, the Keystone Steel and Wire Company, now in Peoria, Illinois, have grown to be the largest independent fence factory in the world. The fence sent back has the Keystone shaped mesh, which style has long been discontinued as the Keystone Company now makes the well known "Red Brand" style of fence, the kind with the top wire painted red.

The plant shown in the picture is the one in which the Keystone business started, back in 1880. This is the building in which the fence taken down by Mr. Hoppes may have been made.

The Keystone Company is planning to rebuild the original plant at their present location in Peoria, as well as the old handloom on which the first piece of Keystone fence was made. It is not known how many rods of this hand woven fence they could make in a month, in those days, but it is known that the present mills have a capacity of more than a million rods per month so there will be a lot of contrast between the first plant and that of the present.

MAY REQUEST WAIVER OF GOVERNMENT RULE

Cincinnati, May 18.—(AP)—A claimed threatened shortage of skilled labor among relief recipients brought about the possibility today that waiver would be requested of a government rule that 90 per cent of such workers on federal projects be drafted from ranks of the needy.

The project in question locally is the resettlement administration's $10,000,000 community, "Greenhills," near suburban Mount Healthy.

WHIP JACKSON FOR CLASS A HONORS; BLOOMINGBURG WINS

Blue and White Top Jackson 8 to 3 in Finals While Burgers Beat Leesburg, Racine and New Boston for C class "B" Title

Two Fayette County baseball nines—Washington C. H. and Bloomburg—scooped up all honors and came home from the Southern District Tournament campaign with Class A and Class B honors tucked neatly under their belts.

At the affairs, held Friday and Saturday at the Ohio University diamond at Athens, Washington C. H. margined Jackson 8 to 3 in the finals for the Class A crown while Bloomburg, after downing Leesburg Friday, took Racine and New Boston to annex the Class B title. The Scarlet and Gray whipped Racine 8 to 4 and New Boston 2 to 0.

In the Burger games, Bennett, a hurler, pitched all the time in three games, a good record for a chukker.

WORK HARD FOR DISTRICT CROWN

The Lions, playing heads-up ball, worked hard for their 8 to 3 victory over Jackson in the finals. By merit of this win, they will enter the state meet which will be held in Columbus a week from the coming Friday.

Washington C. H. batters hit Williams, Jackson hurler, nine times. The longest was a double each from the bats of Grimm, Kille, and Witherspoon. Grimm marked up a single also, the only one to get two hits.

Bennett started on the slab for the locals but was relieved in the fourth by Forbis. Jackson hit the Blue and White pitchers' offerings five times, including a homer in the third by Lamburck with one on.

Forbis struck out seven. Bennett four, and Williams one. Bennett walked one and Williams allowed four to reach the initial sack in wild tosses.

Self, of the Pickups, hit three singles and a double in five trips to the plate. Anschutz's homer in the eighth was the longest hit of the day.

MILLER SUBSTITUTE HITS NINTH HOMER AS SAINTS BEATEN

RED BIRDS SPLIT DOUBLET BILL WITH COLONELS; FIRST A SLUGFEST

Chicago, May 18.—(AP)—Minneapolis held an edge today in this year's competition with an American Association rival of long standing, St. Paul.

The champion Millers whipped the league-leading Saints yesterday, 5-4, to take the series, two games to one. Roy Pfleger, subbing for Andy Cohen at second base for the Millers, continued his sensational hitting by getting his ninth homer of the year to provide the winning margin. Cleanup hitters on both clubs had perfect days at the plate, Bob Boken of the Saints getting "four for four" and Spencer Harris getting three hits in three trips for Minneapolis. Each had one home run.

Louisville divided a doubleheader with Columbus, the Red Birds winning the opener 16 to 10 and the Colonels the nightcap 6-2. Bob Shaffer of the Colonels pitched four-hit ball in the second tilt, retiring Columbus in order after allowing the fourth hit with one out in the fifth.

In the opener Columbus got 21 hits for 42 bases. Jack Winstett had two home runs, as did Brack of the Colonels. Manager Burleigh Grimes of Louisville was chased from a game for the fourth time this season when he protested a decision in the opener. Eddie Morgan of Columbus also was banished in the first game.

Kansas City beat Milwaukee 12 to 2 before 11,685 paid fans. Madjeski led the Blues' attack with two triples, a double and a single, batting in six runs. Whitlow Wyatt, sent to Kansas City three days ago by the Chicago White Sox, allowed only three hits until the eighth. A single and a fluke triple then ruined his hopes for a shutout.

Toledo won the opening game of a double bill with Indianapolis, 5-4 in 11 innings and then lost the second, 9-5. Alta Cohen, who replaced Lou Garland for the Hens in the seventh, won his own game in the eleventh by singling with two men on base.

ANOTHER WIN-BY-A-NOSE LEAVES BOLD VENTURE IN CENTER OF CONTROVERSY

By ORLO ROBERTSON

New York, May 18.—(AP)—Bold Venture, winner of the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness, has proved his right to wear the three-year-old crown.

Like a true champion, the chestnut filer from Morton L. Schwartz's New York stable has shown he can run in front or come from behind and still be on top at the judges stand. He was a front running colt when he beat J. E. Widener's Brevity in the Derby. In the Preakness he came from the rear with a dramatic stretch drive to whip William Woodward's Granville by a nose.

Bold Venture's margins of victory were so narrow, however, that there are many who still declare Brevity would have won the Derby had he not been roughed at the start or that Granville would have taken the Preakness if Jimmy Sout had saved his mount on the back stretch and not gone wide at the first turn.

Regardless of the arguments, the outcome of the famous Kentucky and Maryland classics turned the $50,000 Belmont stakes into a natural, which should draw one of the largest crowds in New York turf history to Belmont Park, June 6. The mile and one-half race will find three colts, plus C. V. Whitney's Red Rain, matching strides for the first time this year. Granville was in the Derby but never got a chance after tossing his rider at the start.

Bold Venture will be seeking an even more coveted honor in the Belmont. Only three horses, Sir Barton, Gallant Fox, and Omaha, have won the American "triple."

The added distance of the Belmont should make little difference to either of the big three for each has indicated he can go the route. Bold Venture ran the one and one-quarter miles of the Derby in the third fastest time in history, 2:03 3/5. With Brevity closing strong. In the Preakness, the Schwartz colt stepped the mile and three sixteenths in 1:59, a time beaten only by Omaha and High Quest, and was going strong at the end with Granville only a nod away.

Unlike the Derby, when he took the lead on the backstretch, Bold Venture did not stick his nose in front in the Preakness until an eighth of a mile from home.

Golf Pro 8 Under Par On Cincinnati Course

Cincinnati, May 18.—(AP)—Bob "Red" Strauss, pro in charge of Cincinnati's Municipal golf courses, "took" the Avon field course yesterday in a hot 61—eight under par, and his score card showed:

Strauss holed his spade-mashie tee-shot on the 132-yard fifteenth; went out in 30, four under par, and back in 31.

RATHSKELLER BASEBALLERS WIN SHUTOUT

LANCASTER GLASS WORKERS BEATEN AT NEW HOLLAND

New Holland, May 18.—Shadel Saunders pitched his team—the Helfrich Buds—to a 2 to 0 victory over the Lancaster Hocking Glass Sunday afternoon at the Rathskeller diamond just this side of New Holland.

Saunders was not nicked a single time and only one man reached first. The game was tightly played as can be seen by the score.

Laymon, visiting hurler, was hit but three times, Funk and Noon, Washington C. H. lads, marking up a single apiece, while Curry hammered out a double.

The largest crowd to date this season watched Saunders breeze down twelve men while walking one. Laymon fanned four and walked five.

One of the Buds' tallies came in the fourth while the other was scored in the eighth.

Next Sunday the Kay Jewelers, of Columbus, are scheduled to visit the Helfrich diamond, Captain Dudley Briggs has announced.

Bowermiester hurled six innings for the win while Thompson took over the duties for three heats. The hurlers had their slants nicked for six safe hits.

Pyles, on the slab for the visitors, was battered for sixteen safe hits.

Shadley, of Washington C. H., Wical, and Bowermiester each marked up four hits out of four times at bat. DeWeese, another Washington C. H. lad, hammered out two two-base hits.

Next Sabbath the Chevies crew meets the Falter Packers, out of Columbus, it has been announced.
